

Public outside space

- Healthy, welcoming outdoor spaces that bring the community together
- Places to rest and places to be active
- Range of activities for all ages to enjoy
- Spaces that encourage a closer connection with nature
- Well-used, well-lit and overlooked by homes to improve safety

- Pultney Park
- Community heart
- Canal nature trail

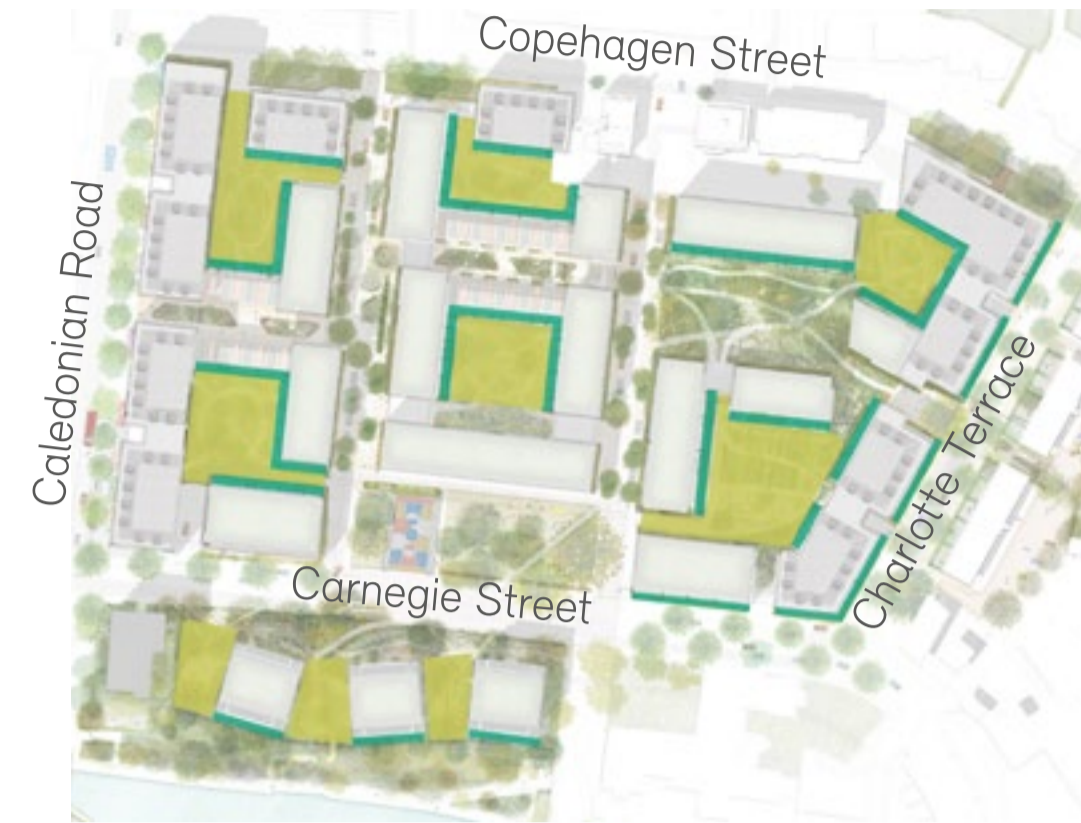

View of a transformed Pultney Park

New activities in the public spaces

Shared and private outside space

- Semi-private courtyards shared by residents
- Sheltered green spaces with planting and trees
- Seating for rest and relaxation
- Child-friendly with play features
- Soft boundaries provide privacy to private amenity space
- Designed to maximise daylight and sunlight

- Residential shared courtyards
- Private amenity space

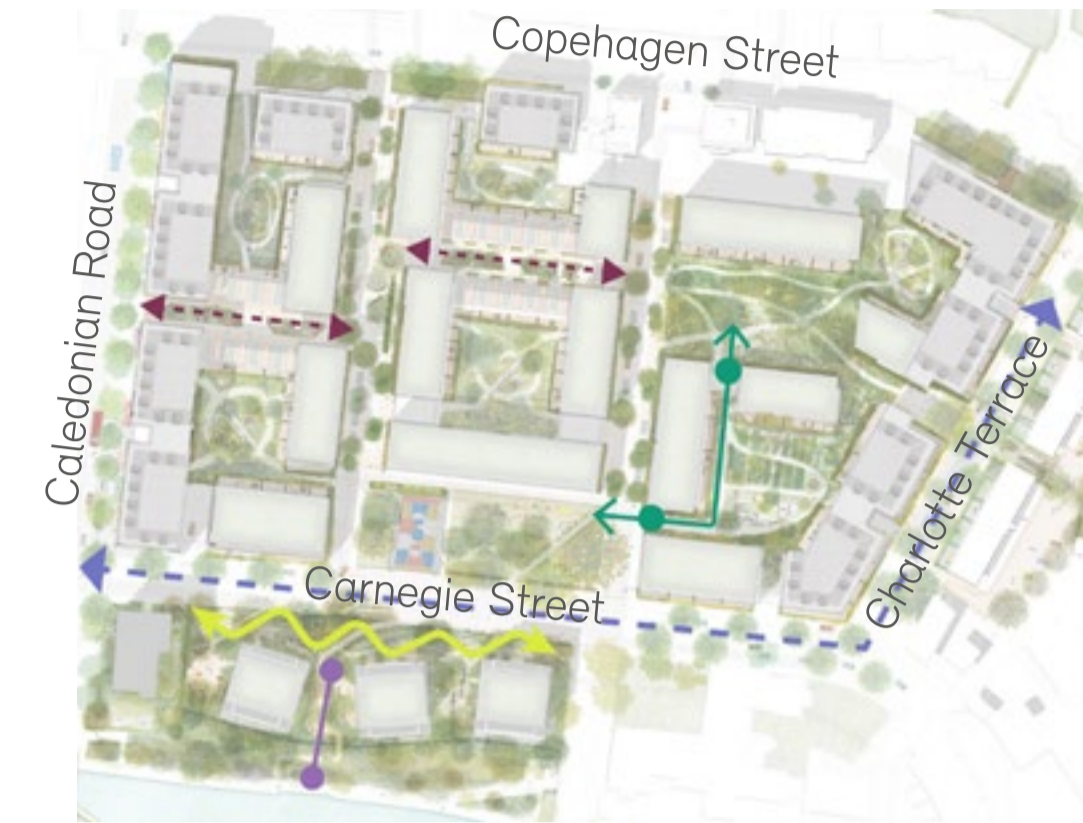

View from within a shared residential courtyard

Shared courtyard precedents

New walking routes

- A connected estate
- Accessible, well-lit and safe
- New signage and wayfinding
- Potential to connect with the Regent's Canal towpath
- Potential Garden Walk links the Community Heart with Pultney Park

- Mews connect east to west
- Proposed Garden Walk
- Canal play and nature trail
- Pedestrian link to towpath
- Improved cycle route
- Secure fob gates

View from the Garden Walk towards the Community Hub entrance

Garden Walk precedent

